Stuart F. Lindsey III

The following notice of Mr. S. F. Lindsey's illness is taken from one of our exchanges, and, presumably, copied from the Bridgewater Herald. Mr. Lindsey comes of Highland stock, being a grandson of the late Reuben Slaven, and he has many friends here who will be grieved to learn of his break-down in health.

"Hon. Stuart F. Lindsey will leave Bristol this morning for Richmond, where he is to enter St. Luke's Hospital for treatment," says the Bristol Courier. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Lindsey, who will spend a few days with him at the hospital.

Mr. Lindsey has been in feeble health for more than a year, and is now scarcely able to do any of the work that devolves upon him as clerk of the United States court at Abingdon, Va.

It is quite likely that he will undergo an operation before his return in which event he will probably be away more than a month.

No man has more friends in Bristol than Mr. Lindsey, and no man is deserving of more friends. The wish that he may be speedily restored to health will be general here and throughout southwest Virginia. His suffering through the past year have resulted in much sympathy, and good tidings from St. Luke's will be anxiously awaited.

Mr. Lindsey, who is a son of our countryman, Postmaster J. H. Lindsey, of Bridgewater, was formerly a resident of this place, and has many friends here and throughout the county, who echo the sentiments expressed by the Courier.

If you want business advertised in the Recorder.

Circuit Court
The first court since last April convened on Monday morning, Judge Geo K Anderson, presiding. In spite of the long interval, the attendance was not overly large, and no great amount of business was in hand.

The grand jurors sworn were, J N Stover, Wm N Bird, H A Wade, W W Stephenson, Tobias McClintic, D. C. Ralston, Orion Fleisher, H M Sites and H T Bradshaw.

During the term the following true bills were found, 13 in all:

James Siron, felony.
Owen M Hook, misdemeanor.
John Malcomb, misdemeanor.
Floyd Lewis, misdemeanor.
Harry Gaswinner, misdemeanor.
Kyle Malcomb and Grover Leach, misdemeanor.
Benj. H Ralston, felony.
J C Skillman, felony.
W T. Charles and George Swadley, an "affray."

Forest, James, Mort, Homer and Hubert Hull, an affray.

Same, assault and battery.

J H Henkle, procuring and delivering liquor to minor.

V Napoli, retailing liquor.

Cases in which more or less public interest has been manifested, were disposed of as follows:

James E Ervine vs. R W Lightner, verdict for plaintiff.

A. Erskine Miller vs. Elmer F. Evick, verdict for plaintiff.

Jno A Chestnut vs. Nancy J. Chestnut continued on account of illness of defendant.

Lawyers in attendance during term were Messrs. J B and J W Stephenson, B H Hiner, W A Bratton, H H Byrd, R L Reger.

James Siron was brought into court arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The question of bail was raised, opposed by commonwealth, and denied. The prisoner was remanded to jail. Judge Anderson hopes to be able to hold a special term about 10th of February for trial of this case.

Prisoner had seen the barber since arrested, and looked better.

Court adjourned Wednesday evening and Judge Anderson left on Thursday morning.

Mr J L Shumate assisted Capt. Matheny, during term, in Clerk's office.

Facts in the Case

On Friday last Mr Luther Beverage was taken ill, and it developed later that he had contracted a case of smallpox, the mild type that has prevailed, more or less, in Highland and other counties for a year or more. He is going about his room, the disease being very mild in form, but every precaution has been taken to protect others and prevent its spread. The few who were with him before the case had developed, have been quarantined, and the school board has ordered all the school teachers and pupils to be vaccinated as a further precaution—a work required by law, any way. The Recorder publishes the facts, just as they are, believing that it will set at rest the wild rumors growing out of such scares, and we unhesitatingly say that there is no occasion for panic or interruption of business affairs between town county, as the matter will be promptly and carefully dealt with.

There are also some cases on Jackson's River of which the supervisors and Board of Health took cognizance on Tuesday.

Highland Boy Dies in Newark N J

Tuesday afternoon the family of Mrs. O. E. Sullenberger received a telegram announcing the sudden death, on the previous night, of Mr. Lynn Sullenberger, at the home of his adoption, Newark, New Jersey. It is needless to say that the message came as a great shock to his family and friends here. Lynn was a son of Mrs. O. E. Sullenberger, of Vanderpool, and one of a large family of boys. He was born at Monterey and made his residence here until manhood. During those early years he made many warm friends, who are grieved to hear of his unexpected death.

Lynn was a printer by trade and has been employed at Newark for several years.

His brother, Carl Sullenberger, stationed at Fort Hunt, near Washington, D. C., was communicated with by the friends here and went to Newark to take charge of the body, which was expected to reach Staunton early this morning.

The body was met at West Augusta to-day—Thursday—by undertaker, Paul Slaven, and will be brought to Monterey for burial.

We have heard no particulars of this sad death, but it is recalled by many that Mr. Sullenberger, in early life, was afflicted with heart trouble, and it is supposed that his death was due to that.

Lynn was about 33 years of age.

A letter received today by Mrs Sullenberger states that death was due to asphyxiation, the gas escaping by accident, from a stove.

The funeral will take place from the Methodist church Friday morning at 11 o'clock.
